IPSAPortal: TOP 300 web sites for Political Science On-line Research

www.ipsaportal.net

IPSAPortal is an official on line publication of the International Political Science Association launched at the IPSA 20th World Congress in Fukuoka, Japan. IPSAPortal is an innovative project aiming at fostering on-line research in Political Science.

By selecting, reviewing and evaluating the best websites providing data, materials and sources for scholarly research, IPSAPortal offers an authoritative guidance to students and scholars worldwide.

IPSAPortal aims at making political scientists worldwide fully aware of the immense opportunities for easy and often free access to scholarly sources through the Net: an extraordinary wealth and variety of sources that can now be accessed as a «library without walls», the largest research environment worldwide and a new journey into knowledge.
